Subject: Revaluation meeting

Dear Jon,

Geetha and I left around 10 as we needed to move on to other things. We'd like to thank you for setting up the meeting and making an honest attempt to press Mr. Ryan for answers. We appreciate your efforts.

Frankly, we found him utterly unconvincing. His numbers didn't make sense nor did his explanation of why he chose to do things the way he did. If it was up to me, I would never hire him again nor would I recommend his work to anyone else.

Since periodic revaluations will be a permanent feature of our landscape here, more thought needs to be given to how to run this process more effectively. Having 20% of the population extremely unhappy with their elected officials and municipal employees is not a healthy state of affairs. While no process will eliminate dissatisfaction, what we are going through right now almost seems calculated to maximize it.

Happy to share specific thoughts with you if it would be helpful.

Best of luck resolving this and best regards.
